RE-ELECT DAVID IGE FOR GOVERNOR

Local 5 endorsed Governor David Ige for his re-election campaign at our annual statewide Delegate Convention.

"Local 5 is endorsing Governor Ige in his re-election campaign because he has been loyal to Hawaii's working families. We saw this when he vetoed a bad Airbnb bill; if it had passed, it would have allowed illegal vacation rentals to overrun our state and take away what little affordable housing is left for locals," says Eric Gill, Financial Secretary-Treasurer.

Governor Ige also affirmed his support for nearly 150 non-union United Airlines catering workers at the Honolulu Airport who want the right to vote in a union election. "Like us, Governor Ige believes that one job should be enough to live in Hawai'i and support our families," says Ino Otto, United Airlines catering worker.

Primary Election is on Saturday, August 11, 2018.

VOTE KIM COCO IWAMOTO FOR LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR

Local 5 supports progressive candidate for Lieutenant Governor Kim Coco Iwamoto, a longtime ally of Local 5. Kim Coco has fought alongside our union during many of our major campaigns, including Hotel Workers Rising in 2006 and our Hyatt Hurts campaign in 2010.

"We are happy to endorse Kim Coco Iwamoto for Lieutenant Governor," said Eric Gill, Financial-Secretary Treasurer. "She has been a staunch ally of Local 5 for over a decade and is an enthusiastic supporter of our One Job Should Be Enough campaign. We know that she will turn the Lieutenant Governor's Office into the People's Office. She has demonstrated that in her unwavering commitment to equal rights and inclusivity, both in and out of the workplace."
