We started off our strike with strong turnout at all 5 picket lines, sending a message loud and clear to Marriott and Kyo-ya that one job should be enough to live in Hawai'i!

Yesterday's victories include:

- Hawaii Sheet Metal Workers Union honored our strike and checked out of 100 rooms that were booked for a week at Sheraton Maui for their conference.
- A United Airlines flight crew honored our strike and checked out of the Sheraton Princess Kaiulani.
- IUEC Local 126 elevator workers honored our strike and refused to do work at the Kyo-ya Waikiki hotels.
- Members of Academic Labor United and American Federation of Teachers joined us on the picket line.
- Royal Hawaiian worker Janal Kaina spoke at a Standing with Survivors action at UH Manoa about our Marriott strike and our demand for the company to respect women.
