

MARRIOTT STRIKE BULLETIN

Day 30: Tue. 11/6/18

Eye on the Prize: We're down to the last but most important bargaining goals: housekeeping, big money, and 4 year power.

Housekeeping: "We are not 2nd class housekeepers. Why does San Francisco have only 14 rooms and we're cleaning 15? We have lanais, bird droppings, and sand. Us housekeepers hardly take our breaks, and if we do, we're rushing. After the renovations, it will be even harder. The lanai is glass, no shower curtain—all glass doors, the tub is deeper, and the bed is really low.

When I go home, my back is so sore. I don't feel like cooking, it's plate lunch every night. When the pain is bad I feel like I'm not doing my job as a mother because I'm so tired. My kids are young so I should be playing with them, but I just can't. Something has to change for us."
—Geraldine Acoba, Sheraton Waikiki.

More Support from Senator Mazie Hirono: She spoke about our strike and our One Job Should Be Enough campaign on CNN!

Ocean Picket: 4:30pm, Wednesday at Sheraton Waikiki loading dock.

A former guest at the Sheraton Maui came to our picket line and donated to our strike fund.

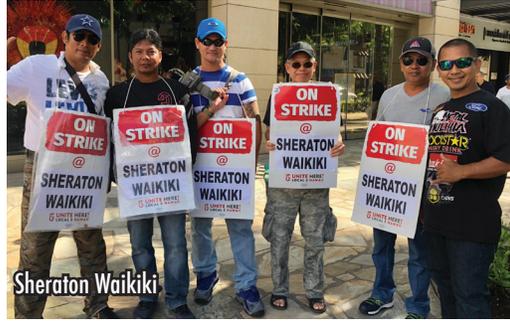

We are continuing to expand our picket lines to places such as the Ritz Carlton Waikiki.

UH professors delegated Kyo-ya in support of our strike. They told management one job should be enough!
