

MARRIOTT STRIKE BULLETIN

Day 47: Fri. 11/23/18

Thanksgiving Feast:

Our Thanksgiving feasts in Waikiki and Maui were a huge success! Strikers feasted on turkey, lechon baboy (roast pig), side dishes, and desserts. Thanks to our Local 5 cooks who cooked and prepared the turkey, mashed potatoes, stuffing, and more. Thanks to everyone who helped serve the food.

Thank you to everyone who brought a dish to share. Thanks to community supporters for donating food for our Thanksgiving feasts.

"I am thankful for the camaraderie, everybody stepping up, and not leaving each other behind." — Pat Ongjoco, Sheraton Waikiki cook.

Get the "One Job" logo printed on your old shirts:

For Black Friday today, UH students will be at The Moana Surfrider to offer free screen printing of shirts. Bring a blank cotton shirt with you to the Moana Surfrider picket line today from 1pm-3pm if you want the "One Job Should Be Enough" logo screen printed on your shirt.
