Financial Assistance – People’s Fund of Maui

- Website: <https://www.eifoundation.org/peoples-fund-of-maui/>
- Call: 808-427-7777
- In Person: Between Sept. 8-11, from 8am-6pm at Westin Maui (2365 Kaanapali Parkway, Lahaina)
- What it is: Homeowners and renters who lost their primary residence in the fires can apply to get $1200 per month (age: must be 18+ to apply). Requires proof of residence in the form of photo ID and one utility bill in your name.

Apply for FEMA disaster assistance

- Website: www.disasterassistance.gov
- Phone: 1-800-621-3362 (available 24/7). Disaster survivors who are deaf, hard of hearing, or have a speech disability and use a Text Telephone (TTY) may call 800-462-7585.
- Mobile App: <https://www.fema.gov/about/news-multimedia/mobile-products>
- Addresses – FEMA Disaster Recovery Center:
 - University of Hawaii Maui, 310 W. Kaahumanu Ave., Kahului, 8am-7pm, 7 days/week.
 - Hannibal Tavares Community Center, 91 Pukalani St, Makawao, 8am-7pm daily
- What it is: Talk to specialists at the disaster recovery centers to get info about local, state and federal assistance programs. Representatives from the Small Business Administration (“SBA”) will be on hand to talk about low-interest disaster loans for homeowners, renters and businesses.
 - Disaster assistance funds. FEMA may be able to provide housing assistance – rental assistance, lodging reimbursement, home repair, home replacement, direct housing
 - Set up your FEMA account for financial assistance towards food, gas and housing. It takes about 30 minutes. You will need: 1) SS number 2) insurance information 3) property address. Needs to be direct deposit so you will need your bank’s routing number as well as your account number.
 - If you have insurance (home, auto, renter’s, etc.), make sure to file a claim with your insurance company. FEMA will not cover claims for things already covered by insurance.

To begin the process, go to: <https://huiclaims.hawaii.gov>

This is the screen you will get. Click on and review any informational videos that may apply to you:

The screenshot shows the home page of the Hawaii Unemployment Insurance website. At the top, there is a navigation bar with the 'hawaii.gov' logo and the text 'State of Hawaii, Department of Labor and Industrial Relations Unemployment Insurance'. Below this, there are language selection options for English, 中文, Tagalog, and 日本語. A secondary row of language options includes Ilokano, Tagalog, Kapasen Chuuk, Kajin Majöl, Español, Tiếng Việt, 中文, 한국어, and 日本語. The main content area is divided into three columns: 'For Claimants', 'For Employers', and 'For Service Company'. Each column lists various services and includes a 'Get started' button. To the right of these columns is a vertical sidebar with buttons for 'Claimant Services', 'Employer Services', 'Service Company', and 'Contact'. At the bottom, there are sections for 'Frequently Asked Questions' and 'When to file'.

When ready, click on the blue box on the right that says “Claimant Services”
This will take you to the next screen:

The screenshot shows the login page of the Hawaii Unemployment Insurance website. The header is identical to the home page. The main content area is divided into three columns. The left column is titled 'CREATE A LOGIN' and contains instructions for creating a new account, a 'Create Account' button, and a 'Frequently Asked Questions' link. The middle column is titled 'CLAIMANT LOGIN - USERNAME' and contains a 'Username' input field, a 'Sign in' button, and links for 'Forgot username?' and 'Cancel'. The right column is titled 'When to file' and lists the hours for filing online, reactivating or updating employment, and appeals. Below the login forms is an 'Announcements' section with a heading 'New Requirements for Filing a Partial Claim' and a paragraph of text explaining the changes effective June 4, 2023.

From here, you may click on “Create a Login” if you are a new user or *Reactivate (using your old account/password). *If you forgot your old account/password, call the Unemployment office for assistance.
