DAY 24 – THURSDAY, OCTOBER 17, 2024

MAKING HEADLINES ACROSS THE COUNTRY

Hilton is feeling the heat as more guests step forward and expose how the Village is struggling without its workers. We are proving to management how valuable our work is and they can't replace us even if they try.

USA TODAY

Piles of dirty towels and long lines: Hawaii hotel guests describe conditions amid strikes

Kathleen Wong
USA TODAY

"I wasn't prepared, I was scrambling to get a car or get an extension on the rental. It just created so much inconvenience," she said. "It had nothing to do with the protestors, it really had to do with Hilton not letting us know."

HOTELS REPRESENTING OVER 30% OF PARK HOTELS' OPERATING PROFIT AFFECTED BY STRIKES

Park is a real estate investment trust (REIT) and the biggest private-sector owner of Hilton hotels. An analysis by UNITE HERE estimated that Park earned 32.2% of its EBITDA at four hotels where Hilton employees are on strike: the DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel Seattle Airport, Hilton Boston Logan Airport, Hilton Hawaiian Village, and Hilton Seattle Airport & Conference Center. Scan QR code to read more

STRIKE RESOURCE CENTER

In-person help now available at the Local 5 office! Strikers can receive help navigating financial assistance available to them while on strike. 1516 S. King St. 9am-5pm
