HILTON HAWAIIAN VILLAGE STRIKE

DAY 5 - SEPTEMBER 28

Day 5 started with striking workers lining Kalakaua to leaflet, chant and sing alongside the Aloha Parade participants. In the afternoon, our Kaiser members joined us on the picket line where a convention of physicians crossed the picket line to hold their event at the Hilton —shame on them!

Throughout the strike, we continue to welcome back members that previously crossed the line and rejoin their brothers and sisters on the strike line. Workers continue to leaflet to customers on the beach and give out “Complaint Vouchers” for guests to demand a refund from management. One guest shared he got a 50% refund after complaining to management and that he supports all of the workers on strike fighting for better working conditions.

MEMBERS STEPPING UP

STEVEN HUFANA (CULINARY)

Steven attended the quarterly meeting of Hui Aloha Aina’s Honolulu branch alongside ILWU Local 142 and HNA workers to talk about our common fight and struggles against corporate interests in Hawaii.

GLADYS (PBX) THERESA (WIKI WIKI) ALMA (PARKING ATTENDANT) LOUIS, MILES, GERRITT (BELL DEP)

These Hilton workers leafletted to guests at the HPMG conference and educated them about why we are out on strike and that HPMG had chosen to cross the picket line. Many guests expressed their support for strikers and donated to the hardship
