HILTON HAWAIIAN VILLAGE STRIKE

DAY 6 - SEPTEMBER 29

OUR STRIKE IS MAKING AN IMPACT! More guests are coming forward in support of Hilton workers! A guest attending the American Society of Horticultural Science conference shared how the strike disrupted the conference and left it a mess, despite Hilton telling guests that there was a contingency plan in place. He encouraged other groups to cancel or relocate their conferences at the Village or any hotel on strike. Watch a full video by scanning QR code.

MEMBERS STEPPING UP

NATHANAEL VILLORENTE, HOUSEKEEPING

Nathaniel crossed the line on Day 1 of our strike, but came to the picket line on Day 5 and expressed his deep regret for doing so. He shared that he was afraid of the sacrifice involved in going on strike and how it would impact his ability to take care of his family financially. He realized after seeing his coworkers on the line how much he wanted to join them and the strength that comes from sticking together. Welcome back to the Union family Nathaniel!

SURAPEE SARTRAPAI, BELL DEP

Surapee has been leafletting to guests every day and has had many meaningful conversations. Many guests express sympathy for striking workers after hearing Surapee share her experiences working in the Bell department.

CESAR TAUYAN, FRONT DESK

For hours every day, Cesar has kept the energy up at the different lines by leading different chants and encouraging workers to chant along. He also soapboxes to the guests informing them why we are on strike and encouraging to demand a refund from management.
